

Start up a fun eco-project with Action for Sustainable Living

We believe that small steps lead to big changes! Do you?

Gain amazing experience with award-winning charity Action for Sustainable Living (AfSL) and make a massive difference in your local community. If you're a Trafford resident and excited about the idea of designing and running your own sustainability projects then get in touch with us now!

We are now recruiting for new Voluntary Local Project Managers (LPMs) throughout Trafford. The role is a challenging and rewarding one so if you are an enthusiastic, self-motivated individual able to offer about eight hours per week to support AfSL's activities, why not nominate yourself for this unique opportunity?

What's in it for you?

- Get the career you want with voluntary experience
- Receive support, training, resources and mentoring from AfSL
- Meet new people and make a positive impact in your local area

No previous experience is necessary.

In partnership with Trafford Council, AfSL has trained and supported volunteers in Trafford since 2007. In that time AfSL LPMs have set up community allotment projects, Fairtrade societies, energy action teams, local shop campaigns and a whole range of interesting, locally-relevant projects.

"I've found my experience of being an LPM very rewarding – I liked working with people committed to sustainability. I got to know tons of people and I got a sense of accomplishment!"

Local Project Manager Old Trafford

LPMs attend events, give talks and workshops and set up local action groups and projects. Previous Local Project Managers have set up community allotment projects, Fairtrade societies, energy action teams, composting schemes, local shop campaigns and much more besides.

These posts are available for a minimum period of 6 months.

If you are interested in this position then our next LPM introduction evening will be on Wednesday 29th September 2010 from 6:00 – 8.00pm at the AfSL office on Hilton Street, Manchester.
